Very Important:

- School fees are a statutory obligation. Parents, irrespective of their marital status and /or personal arrangements (married, divorced or unmarried), are jointly and severally liable in law for their school fees.
- Should parents default on any one month's payment, the FULL school fee amount will become due and payable immediately.
- Accounts of parents who default on payment will, without exception, be handed over to our attorneys for collection. Judgement could be taken against either or both parents, for the principal debt with costs, which would result in them being blacklisted.

- Kindly note that this letter serves as a notice in terms of Section 41(5)(a) of the South African Schools Act 84 of 1996. You are entitled to apply for a reduction of alternatively an exemption from school fees, in which event you are to indicate your intention to apply and whether you require assistance with such an application. Applicants must be prepared for an exhaustive investigation, supported by documentary proof, into their financial circumstances and lifestyle. This is an annual application to the SGB which needs to be completed by the end of February 2023. The income of both parents irrespective of their marital status or maintenance agreement are used in calculation of exemption.
- Exemptions are funded from the school fees paid by other parents. The Department of Education is not forthcoming in assisting the school financially as is communicated by them.
